Adapted from The SURE Test © 2008 O'Connor & Légaré.

If you answer 'no' to any question, you can work through steps two 2 and four 4, focusing on your needs.

People who answer "No" to one or more of these questions are more likely to delay their decision, change their mind, feel regret about their choice or blame others for bad outcomes.

4 Plan the next steps based on your needs.
