

National RN Population Health Nurse Certificate Program

Reading & Resource Guide: Population Health Models in Practice

Readings:

1. A Balanced Investment Portfolio for Equitable Health & Well-Being is an Imperative (Health Affairs, 2018)
Important Read. In this article Kindig & Milstein describe the need to redistributing resources to improve population health.
2. Nurse-Led Initiatives Improve Population Health (JONA, 2020)
Practice Example. This article describes nursing innovations to address population health.

Practice Resources:

Review/Bookmark These Websites:

1. The Triple Aim and Population Health (Institute for Healthcare Improvement - IHI)
<https://www.ihl.org/improvement-areas/improvement-area-triple-aim-and-population-health>
2. Patient Centered Medical Home Recognition (National Committee for Quality Assurance – NCQA)
<https://www.ncqa.org/programs/health-care-providers-practices/patient-centered-medical-home-pcmh/>
3. What is a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC)? (FQHC Associates)
<https://www.fqhc.org/what-is-an-fqhc>
4. Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs) (Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services)
<https://www.cms.gov/priorities/innovation/innovation-models/aco>